CITY AND COUNTY OFFICIAL PAPER

A great many people are leaving Los Angeles, San Diego and San Bernardino, and settling in the Salt River valley. They all agree that the prospects of the magnificent valley are far in advance of any other section they have visited.

Carter Harrison has received the democratic nomination for Mayor of Chicago. Harrison is a hard man to defeat, as he has the entire hoodlum element at his back which generally means success, but this is not a good year for Chicago roughs and there is a strong probability that this old demagogue will be relegated to private life. His defeat means that the lake city is determined that bullies and rascals shall let go their hold from the throat of that grand commercial center.

The only object the taxpayers of this city have in seeing the city disincorporated, is to reduce the expenses of government. Nobody questions the management of the city affairs, but it is an impossibility to conduct a city government under the present charter, without large expenditures. The charter is not calculated for a city of this size, it is taken from cities of 100,000 population, and was engineered through our legislature by a set of tricksters who only desire was to make something for themselves, out of the operation. Now the people desire a repeal of this misnomer, called a city charter, and under the guidance of the Blinn, bill there will be a saving to the city, of fully $4000 a year.

The Interstate Commerce law, which goes into effect the first week of next month, cannot fail to work a great revolution in the business of the country. The brightest minds, however, have not been able to figure precisely what the effect will be, except in a general way. That it will increase freight rates from the East to this Coast there is no room to doubt. In fact, in adjusting the tariff to meet the requirements of the act, the rates have already been fixed, a schedule of ten classes having been arranged, the lowest being $1.15 per hundred pounds, and the highest $4.70. The lowest figure named, which is for freight easiest handled and least bulky, is nearly twice the amount that is now being paid as the result of free competition. The effect upon people who are strictly consumers, therefore, will be to increase their expenses. The rates once fixed will not fluctuate a great deal. The enemies of the bill, did not rest until the good features were all shorn from the measure. And now the people who were misled and deceived as to its provisions, will be compelled to bear the brunt of the increase in tariff.

There are two parties in Arizona—one encourages and assists in the growth and development of the Territory; one invites and aids immigration and are beneficial to the advancement and prosperity of our country, and are always found in the vanguard of civilization and progress, and will succeed in bringing wealth and happiness to our borders. From the bright visions of this pleasing picture we turn to the mummies of the present, to the obstructionists, the men who sit in saloons and hotels and talk of the good old days of the past. They denounce the press, the railroads, and every evidence of advancement is held up as a foe to the country and the human race. They call the men who are laboring in the broad fields of usefulness, men who scatter their money among their neighbors, who risk their wealth in business ventures, and who are, as a rule, successful, they are called mercenaries. These old mile posts on the highway of civilization and progress stand firm in the pathway of advancement and protest against the onward march of events, everything which tends to make life a round of pleasure, which brings the sunshine of joy to the homes of the many, is looked upon by this class with disdain and suspicion. They view with alarm and dread the encroachments of knowledge and intelligence over ignorance and stupidity, and of energy and vigor over poverty and slothfulness, but the ponderous engine of progress and development is sweeping along in its course, undismayed by the protests and anathemas of this class, and will, ere many months, leave its impress on the Territory of Arizona. We welcome its advent, as we are aware of the magnificent possibilities of our Territory.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS DISPATCHES.]

Harrison Nominated.

CHICAGO, March 23.—Carter H. Harrison was nominated for Mayor by the Democrats this afternoon.

In No Hurry.

WASHINGTON, March 23.—It is learned on good authority that Manning's successor will not be appointed before April.

A Good Fall.

WASHINGTON, March 23.—A call of ten million three per cent. bonds to mature May 1st, will probably be issued this afternoon.

Loss of Life by Fire.

BESSEMER, Mich., March 23.—The Colby iron mine boarding house at this place was burned this morning. The loss of life is not yet known, but several persons were so badly burned that they will die.

Fear Old Czar.

PARIS, March 23.—A Paris paper publishes a telegram from Lomborg, capital of Calcutra, Austria, which says that on the 15th of March an attempt was made to upset the train conveying the Czar and Czarina to St. Petersburg on their return from a visit to the Royal Duke Valdimar.

Severe Storms.

ST. JOHNSBURY, Vt., March 23.—A severe snow and wind prevailed here last night. The trains on the Putnam railroad are fast in the snow drifts and the trains on the St. Johnsbury & Lake Champlain road are blocked.

A New Deal.

BALTIMORE, March 23.—It is now stated on good authority that an option will again open to the Ives-Stayner syndicate for the control of the B. & O. from the 1st of April. Garrett, it is stated, cleared $200,000 out of the Selby syndicate failure. It is also stated that the Garrett interest has purchased all of the stock of the John Hopkins University.

Arrest for Contempt.

DUBLIN, March 23.—Judge Boyd has granted a warrant for the arrest of Father Ryan, of the Herberston branch of the National League for contempt of court and refusing to testify concerning his actions as trustee for the tenants under the plan of the campaign. Warrants have also been issued for the arrest of a number of other persons in Herberston on the same charge.

A French Lothario

DENVER, March 23.—The News Washington special says: A prominent United States senator has requested Secretary Bayard to ask the French government to recall Count Maurice Sals, first secretary of the French legation at Washington. It is understood that Mr. Bayard will grant the request which was made because of the attentions to the senator's handsome wife. The matter has started up quite a scandal in Washington society.

"Boulder" Clary.

NEW YORK, March 23.—In the trial of ex-Alderman Clary today, his counsel Shafro made an attack on the press of the city, charging them with being in league to secure the conviction of his client. Shafro spoke in terms of bitter invective against the proprietors of a morning paper of this city. He was brought to a stop by the sharp sound of the gavel. The court said the jurors knew nothing of paper assaults and the counsel must desist. Then furiously turning upon the twenty reporters around the table, the advocate yelled, "there they are, there they are, the burning genius of the press. There isn't one of them you could trust in your house, except the fat man." Three or four flashy quill pushers at the table, and each taking this to himself, blushed violently. He contradicted, but the attorney that he contradicted had been such at the meeting of the other boudiers was called up by the attorney. His client was a poor man and was paying for his defense out of his own pocket. Shafro spoke for two hours.

Bismarck's Extra Session.

ST. LOUIS, March 23.—The Missouri legislature adjourned sine die at noon today. Just before adjournment Governor Marmaduke sent a message to the house, announcing that he will soon call them together in extra session, for the special purpose of enacting laws to enforce the constitutional provisions in reference to railroads, which he thinks has been too long deferred. No time has been set for the extra session, but it will probably be the first Wednesday in May.

Sympathizing With Ireland.

NEW YORK, March 23.—A mass meeting was held to-night in the Cooper Union to protest against the enactment of the proposed coercion measure for Ireland by the English parliament. The meeting was held under the auspices of the municipal council of the Irish National League. Chas. A. Dana, editor of the Sun, acted as chairman. Samuel J. Randal was among the speakers. Roscoe Conkling sent a letter expressing sentiments appropriate to the occasion. The resolutions passed quote "England's greatest statesman" in saying: "Force is no remedy," and declaring that home rule in the establishment of a parliament to deal directly with local questions is the only basis of a settlement of Irish questions. The resolutions tender sympathy and promises of support to Gladstone and Parnell, and encourage them to oppose coercion. The resolutions are to be sent to the two leaders and also to the Tory leader, Lord Salisbury. The following cablegram was sent to Gladstone: "The citizens of New York, in mass meeting assembled protesting against coercion, heartily endorse your noble policy and wish you God speed."

Wholesale Hanging.

ST. PETERSBURG, March 23.—All the Grand Dukes, ministers and diplomats and court officials, visited the German Embassy yesterday congratulating the General Von Schmemitz, the German Ambassador. On Emperor William's birthday, in the evening, a banquet was given at the palace to Von Schmemitz and Major Villanave.

It is reported that the six persons who were captured on Sunday in connection with the recent plot to assassinate the Czar, were hanged on Monday. Dagnoff, the man who murdered Lieutenant Colonel Sudchyn, and was chief of police three years ago, and who was suspected of having plotted against the Czar's life is said to be one of the six.

The Assassin Captured.

LOS ANGELES, Cal., March 23.—General Miles has received a telegram stating that the Apache who fatally stabbed Lieutenant Seward Mott at the San Carlos Agency and escaped a few days ago was captured yesterday. A steady pursuit had been kept up ever since his escape, most of it being done by Lieut. Whipple and chief of scouts Al Seiber. The latter captured all the weapons of the four renegades, except one rifle and one pistol. The pursuit drove the renegades back to the reservation, where the murderer was captured. He is now in the guard house. It is expected that his three companions will be captured today. General Miles states that the murderer will probably be handed over to the civil authorities.

A Safeguard.

The fast rapidly with which slight colds and coughs frequently develop into the gravest maladies of the throat and lungs, is a consideration which should impel every prudent person to keep at hand, as a household remedy, a bottle of AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL.

Not only does it give such immediate relief and speed to cure in all affections of the chest, that constant physicians, Prof. P. Sweetzer, of the Maine Medical School, Brunswick, Me., says:—
"Medicine science has produced no other so diverse expectation so good as AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL. It is invaluable for diseases of the throat and lungs."

The same opinion is expressed by the well-known Dr. L. J. Addison, of Chicago, Ill., who says:—
"I have never found, in thirty-five years of continuous study and practice of medicine, any preparation so successful as AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL for the treatment of diseases of the throat and lungs. It not only breaks up colds and cures severe coughs, but is more effective than anything else in relieving even the most serious bronchial and pulmonary affections."

AYER'S

Cherry Pectoral

Is not a new claimant for popular confidence, but a medicine which is to-day saving the lives of the third generation who have come into being since it was first offered to the public.
There is not a household in which this invaluable remedy has once been introduced where its use has ever been abandoned, and there is not a person who has ever given it a proper trial for any throat or lung disease susceptible of cure, who has not been made well by it.

AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL has, in innumerable instances, cured obstinate cases of chronic Bronchitis, Laryngitis, and even acute Pneumonia, and has saved many patients in the earlier stages of Pulmonary Consumption. It is a medicine that only requires to be taken in small doses, is pleasant to the taste, and is needed in every house where there are children, as there is nothing so good as AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL for treatment of Croup and Whooping Cough.

These are all plain facts, which can be verified by anyone, and should be remembered by everybody.
